Or

Help Your Child Get Organized ...for FREE!

Come hear Education Specialist and Coach from Thinking Outside the Classroom,
Dr. Kelly Robinson :

When: Next Thursday, January 26th from 7:00-9:00pm
Where: Joyce Middle School, 55 Locust Street: 1st floor

Does your child struggle with:

- Remembering assignments, forms, or anything not attached to their body?
- Starting, completing, or turning in homework?
- Understanding how to juggle friends, homework, and after-school activities?

 This is called Executive Functioning. ***

It's basically the skill that allows us to organize our desks, our schedules, and our lives.

This is a skill your child needs to succeed in life... and most of us are not born with this skill. It needs to be taught. Come learn some tips, leave with some tools, blow off some steam, have some laughs, and maybe even save your sanity.

This FREE event is brought to you by the Joyce Middle School PTO and the Woburn Special Education Parent Advisory Council. For more information, visit www.WoburnPAC.org.
